One of the good things about Otaru is there’s lots to see within walking distance. It’s exciting, like treasures in a city with history.

Former Tenya Railway

“The Former Tenya Railway” is the abandoned railway of the first railway in Hokkaido. Perfect for taking a walk as there’s a path alongside it. You can actually walk on the rails, so give it a try!

Sakaimochidori Shopping Street

Get off at your own leisure. Various buildings have been preserved and stand in rows, so you’ll be able to experience various shops.

Sun Mail Shopping Street

A shopping street where you can visit various stores. There’s a lot of character, so be careful not to get lost.

Hanzomonogora Shopping Street

A shopping street that has an old atmosphere. The street is dense with people, so take your time.

The night cruise along the glowing gas lamps can only be done from 4pm to 5pm. The different scenery compared to the daytime will surely make for a lasting memory.
